2. Fill out course information in the 'Add Course' pop-up. Once all the information is filled-out click 'Add' button.

Editing Course Information

1. From a course page, click the edit icon on the upper-right side of 'Course Info' box.

The screenshot shows a web application interface for editing a course. The sidebar on the left has links: 'Admin Test ADMIN', 'Home', 'Courses', and 'User Management'. The main content area is titled 'Course name: Test Course 1'. Below this is a 'Course Info' box. Inside this box, the 'Description' field is highlighted with a red rectangle, and an 'Edit' button with a pencil icon is also highlighted with a red rectangle. Below the description, there are fields for 'Status' (COMPLETE), 'Start Date' (4.01.2016), and 'End Date' (4.30.2016). Below the 'Course Info' box is a 'Lectures' section with an 'Add Lecture' button. The 'Lectures' section contains three entries: 'Lecture 1', 'Lecture 2', and 'Lecture 3', each with a placeholder text. The bottom of the page shows a URL: 'localhost:9000/course/5751d7353347cc38993651bb#modal-form'.

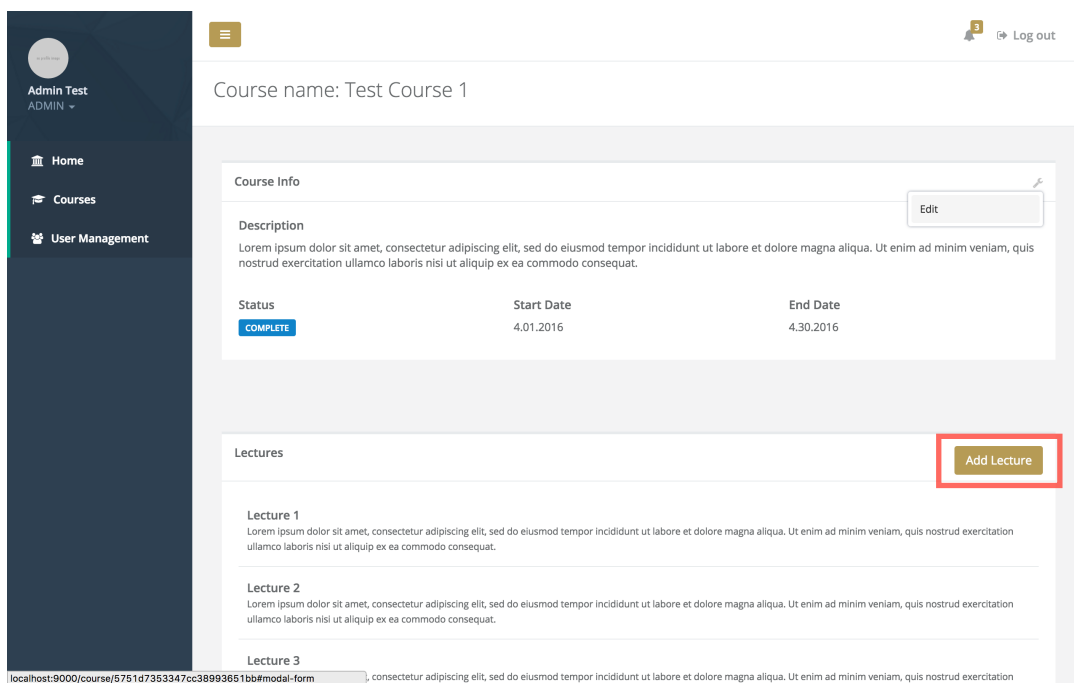

2. Edit the course information on the 'Edit Course' pop-up.

Adding and Editing a Lecture

Adding and Editing a Lecture

1. Click 'Add Lecture' button

2. Fill out the forms with the content of a lecture.

The screenshot shows a web application interface for adding a lecture. On the left is a dark blue sidebar with a user profile 'Admin Test' and a dropdown menu. The main content area has a header 'Add lecture: Test Course 1' and a form titled 'Add Lecture'. The form contains three input fields: 'Lecture Name' (with a red border and error message 'This field is required'), 'Lesson Description' (a large text area), and 'Video URL' (with placeholder text 'Enter URL of a video'). Below these is a rich text editor with a toolbar and a large text area labeled 'Lecture content goes here'.

3. Editing a lecture can be similarly done by clicking 'Edit' button on the lecture page.

Uploading a video to a lecture

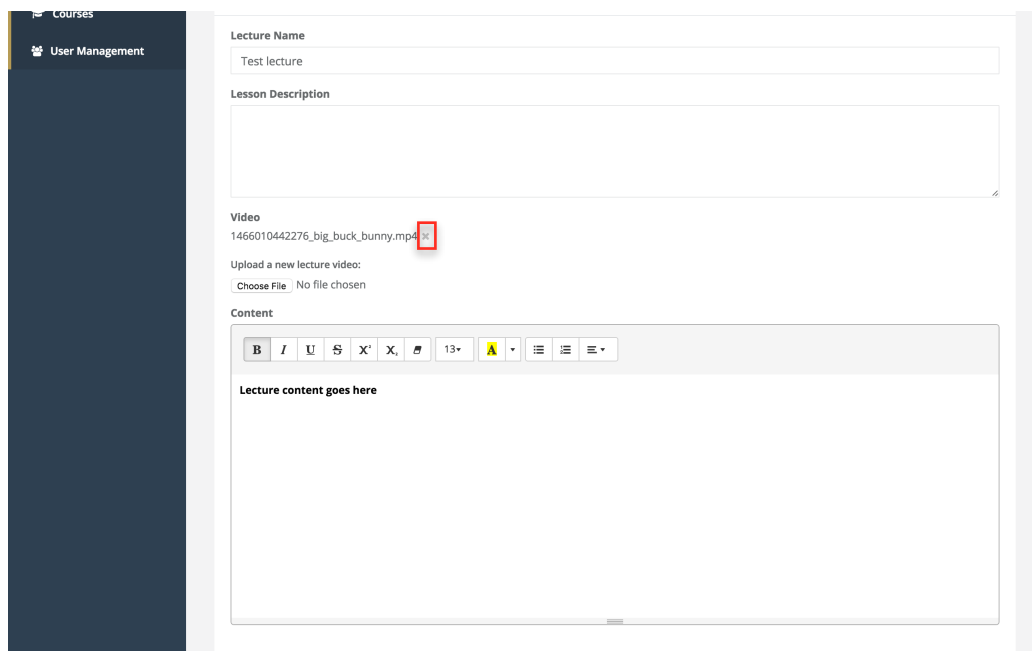

1. After creating a lecture, go to edit lecture page. Choose a video file using file uploader. Please note that only MP4 video files can be uploaded.

2. Click 'Edit' button at the bottom of the page to save the changes.

3. If you wish to remove an uploaded video, click 'X' button next to the title of the video file.

This screenshot is identical to the previous one, but with a red box highlighting the 'X' button next to the video filename '1466010442276_big_buck_bunny.mp4' in the 'Video' section.
